If you wish to cancel after this 28-day period, please see your policy documents for the Terms & Conditions. As long as you haven't made a claim you'll receive a refund of any premium paid.

HomeServe may cancel this policy by giving you at least 7 days' notice in writing to the last address you provided us if you're seriously in breach of the terms of your policy. Examples of a serious breach include: failure to make a payment despite contact from us; failure to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions we ask (see the Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Act 2012 section in Important Information), submitting a fraudulent claim or if you use threatening or abusive behaviour towards our engineers or staff. If we cancel the policy we'll refund the premium paid for the remaining period of cover, unless you've made a claim. We can refuse to renew any individual policy. For full details, please refer to your policy Terms & Conditions.

What happens at the end of the policy period?

Your premium may increase at renewal. In addition, if you make any claim on your policy this may affect your future premiums. You will receive your new policy documentation in advance of renewal to give you time to consider whether the cover is still right for you. If you pay by Direct Debit or credit/debit card, excluding Maestro payments, your cover will automatically renew on the terms in your new policy documents unless you tell HomeServe you do not wish to renew. If you choose any other method of payment you will be sent an invitation to renew prior to your renewal date which will explain how you can renew.
