How can this plan be cancelled?

You can cancel the plan by contacting HomeServe in writing, by telephone or by using the cancellation form online at <http://www.homeserve.com/cancellationletter>. The cancellation period is 28 days after your plan start date. If you cancel within this period you will receive a full refund unless you choose to have your Service completed during this period, in which case you will lose your right to cancel and will not receive a refund. If you cancel after this period and you have not received your Service, you will receive a refund of any payments made minus any applicable administration fee. If you cancel after this period and you have received your Service, you will not be entitled to a refund. For further information, please see the Terms and Conditions.

What happens at the end of this plan period?

Your plan is for 12 months. You will receive your new plan documentation in advance of renewal to give you time to consider whether the plan is still right for you. If you pay by Direct Debit or credit/debit card, excluding Maestro payments, your plan will automatically renew on the terms in your new plan documents unless you tell HomeServe you do not wish to renew. If you choose any other method of payment you will be sent an invitation to renew prior to your renewal date which will explain how you can renew.

Please read the plan terms and conditions for further information.
